

DEMOCRATIC DELEGATES

Charlotte County Declines to Endorse Anybody for President.

GLASS ADDRESSES THEM

Richmond, Westmoreland, Rockingham, Dinwiddie and Other Counties Chose Delegates.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTE COURTHOUSE, VA., June 6.—A mass-meeting of the Democrats of Charlotte was held at the courthouse to-day, at which the following delegates were elected to the State Convention:

W. C. Carrington, B. D. Adams, J. W. Morton, C. A. Osborne, T. Z. Morgan, W. D. Rice, J. C. Carrington, Frank Jennings, G. B. Russell, J. H. Norvell, W. G. Williams and T. A. Proctor, Jr.

A resolution was adopted instructing the delegates from this county to vote for J. C. Carrington to succeed D. Q. Eggleston, who will retire as member of the District Committee.

The meeting refused to endorse any particular candidate for President, but instructed their delegates to have a good and conservative man nominated who would lead the party to victory.

Congressman Carter Glass was present and addressed the meeting.

ISLE OF WIGHT.

Delegation Solid for Martin—A Local Fight Injected.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SUFFOLK, VA., June 6.—Isle of Wight county Democrats to-day in mass-meeting elected twelve State convention delegates, all of whom are partisans of Senator Martin, and adopted a resolution favoring the primary system of nominating all officers.

Colonel J. F. Day, Martin's father-in-law, is a member of the delegation. The unit rule was adopted at a meeting of the delegates afterwards. The sentiment in favor of Martin was overwhelming. The chief interest attached to the injunction of the Southampton county imbrigo into the delegate choosing in Windsor District, where four pronounced friends of Chairman J. Peter Holland, of Southampton county, were chosen by a vote of 70 to 6. The fight against the Holland delegation of that district was led by Dr. Gavin Rawles, superintendent of schools, while the Holland delegation was advocated by Dr. C. J. Bradshaw. There was much feeling. At the delegates' subsequent meeting they unanimously adopted a resolution endorsing Colonel Day, of Isle of Wight, and Peter Holland, of Southampton, as members of the State Central Committee.

With the aid of seventeen votes gotten to-day in Norfolk, Martin men hope to control the district caucus.

FRANKLIN DELEGATES.

Oppose Primary and Want Return to Old Party Methods.

ROCKY MOUNT, VA., June 6.—The Democracy of Franklin in mass-meeting to-day, elected eighteen delegates to the Richmond County Convention as follows:

B. C. Akers, Dr. John R. Guerrant, F. O. Hoffman, A. D. Wood, Dr. W. P. Reese, S. R. Smith, T. J. Belcher, F. O. Hoffman, J. T. Hodges, Dr. E. S. Keen, W. D. Paynes, W. H. Thomson, A. J. McNeil, S. J. Prillman, C. C. Rouse, J. O. Abshire, C. H. Holmes, T. Boone.

Resolutions were passed declaring that after a test they believed the primary plan hurtful to the best interests of the party, and expressing the wish to return to the old plan of conventions and mass-meetings. The delegates were instructed in accordance with this idea.

The resolution heartily endorsed Senator Daniel for Vice-President, but opposed instructing the Virginia delegation as to President.

Gloucester Delegates.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

GLOUCESTER, C. H. VA., June 6.—The following delegates were elected at Gloucester Courthouse to-day to attend the Democratic convention in Richmond: From Petersburg District, J. N. Stubbs, N. T. Gray, L. D. Baisey; Ware District, Dr. W. S. Jones, W. A. Robins, Rex Hinkel; Abingdon District, J. N. Tabb, Dr. John Jones, John Anderton, H. L. Bridges.

Powhatan Delegates.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RALEVILLE, VA., June 6.—At a meeting of the Democratic voters held here Saturday, Dr. Blair Burwell and Milton McLaughlin were elected delegates to the State Convention.

It is understood that one is for Martin and the other for Montague.

The meeting unanimously endorsed the primary plan and the delegates will vote for it in convention.

DEATH OF COL. WINSTON

This Well Known Man Passes Away at His Louisiana Home.

IN FAILING HEALTH FOR YEARS

Death Was Not Unexpected, But Will Cause Great Sorrow to Many Friends.

The death of Colonel William A. Winston occurred Sunday afternoon in Louisiana county after a long illness.

For several years past the health of Colonel Winston had not been good. He recently began to suffer with congestion of the brain, and his condition had been critical for some time. He was surrounded by his family and friends when death came to him quietly at "Malvern," his home at Apple Grove, VA.

WAS WIDELY KNOWN.

While it was not unexpected, the death of Colonel Winston will be a source of much regret throughout the State. He was widely known and prominently connected, and had many friends and relatives in Richmond and other sections.

Colonel Winston came from a distinguished family, which has lived in Louisiana, Va., generations, and which is closely identified with the life of the community. Two of his great-uncles served in the Revolutionary war. He was himself a son of John Winston, who married a Miss Campbell, of Louisiana.

During the Civil War Colonel Winston served with distinction in the Confederate army. His after life was spent mostly in Louisiana, where his beautiful country home became noted for its hospitality. A true type of the old Virginia gentleman, kindly and courteous, Colonel Winston became known and loved by thousands.

He was an affectionate husband and father and was a strict member of the Presbyterian Church.

Colonel Winston was married to Miss Lucy Payne, daughter of W. C. Payne, of Goodland, who in her childhood was known far and near for her beauty and grace. He is survived by his widow and the following children: Alice Maud (Mrs. Lindsay Gordon, of Louisiana Courthouse); Ada Campbell (Mrs. Pendleton, of Wytheville); Lucy Payne (Mrs. Wilmer Sims, of Louisiana); James Overton, Thomas Scott, William Hastings, Edmond Gordon, Mrs. Mary Somerville and Misses Anne Mosby and Helen Hastings Winston. Mrs. E. L. Bolling and Mrs. Ryland Gwathmey, of this city, were his nieces.

The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock this morning. The interment will be made in the family burying ground.

MEMORIAL DAY.

Anniversary of Colonel Turner Ashby's Death Celebrated.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WINCHESTER, VA., June 6.—Confederate Memorial Day was observed in Winchester to-day, and was witnessed by thousands. The graves of some 3,000 soldiers in Stonewall Cemetery, were decorated and a large parade, composed of veterans, military, firemen, school children and citizens, marched to the cemetery.

Rev. Harry Moore, of Keyser, W. Va., was the orator.

The day is also the anniversary of the death of General Turner Ashby at Cross Keys, Va., and has been observed annually ever since the Civil War.

OBITUARY.

Edward C. Drinker.

After a brief illness, Mr. Edward C. Drinker died at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at his home, "Monticello," on Fulton Hill.

Mr. Drinker was a successful dairyman. He was about fifty years of age. He leaves his widow and five children. The funeral took place at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The interment was made in Shookoe Cemetery.

Mrs. Jeanette G. Quarles.

Mrs. Jeanette G. Quarles died at 5 o'clock yesterday morning at her residence, on Third Avenue, Chestnut Hill. She had been ill several days.

Mrs. Quarles was the widow of Mr. James P. Quarles. She was seventy-one years of age. She leaves five sons—A. C. J. W., W. G. W. S. and J. E. Quarles—and one daughter—Mrs. W. L. Roberts.

The funeral will take place at 5 o'clock this afternoon from the residence.

John M. Jordan.

IN THE NEW CHURCH.

Immanuel Baptists Delighted With Their Pretty Edifice.

The congregation of Immanuel Baptist Church, which for nearly a year has worshipped in the Cavalry Armory, on North Seventh Street, moved into the basement of the new church building at Fifth and Leigh Streets on Sunday. The people are delighted with this part of their new edifice, and look forward with happy anticipation to the time when they shall enter the upper part of the building.

The attendance upon the services on Sunday was large, despite the intense heat. The morning and afternoon schools had full classes, there were den meetings at both services, and the annual business meeting, held in the afternoon, was well attended. Rev. Mr. Solly preached the most excellent sermon. That of the morning was an earnest plea to his people for higher living and more consecrated service. There were ten additions to the church at this service.

The reports submitted at the annual meeting showed all the department work of the church's work to be in good condition.

Dance Upon the River To-night.

On the rosy and speedy steamer Old Point Comfort a jolly crowd will go to Dutch Gap to-morrow, under the auspices of the B. M. H. S. P. B. Club. There will be music, dancing and refreshments. The church leaves at 8 and returns at 11 P. M.

The National Union.

The State assembly of "The National Union" held in Norfolk, Va., at the Monticello Hotel, June 21st.

There is much interest being manifested in this meeting, and the order has been making during the past two years in this State. There are four councils in Richmond, one in Manchester, and others in nearly all the large towns and cities of the State.

The chief business of the coming meeting will be the election of a senator to represent the order of Virginia in the Senate National Union, the supreme body. Mr. H. B. Anderson, of Richmond, was present and spoke of the order in the office and will, many think, be the unanimous choice of the assembly as the representative of the State during the past five years is attributed to him by his friends, and it was through his interest the work of the order has become entitled to representation in the governing and legislative body.

A mass meeting of the councils of Richmond and Manchester will be held at Lee Camp Hall on Monday night, June 20th, at 8 o'clock.

Do you have nerves?

565 Broad Street.
AUGUSTA, GA., May 8, 1903.

My work is so arduous and trying to the nerves that I found myself all worn out and my nerves in a state of collapse and heretofore I have been obliged to take a rest for at least three months every year. But since I began taking Wine of Cardui, which was three years ago, I find that I can go on working through the year if I were necessary, and I have gained twenty pounds, sleep well and have a splendid appetite and no longer suffer with sick headache every month.

Wine of Cardui is certainly a boon to women who have nerves and I am pleased to endorse it.

MISS HAMPTON HAD NERVES—she was an invalid three years ago.

Now she has a good appetite, can sleep well at night, has gained twenty pounds in weight and as vitality and nerves are concerned she can go on working the whole year. She is cured.

What is the reason for this change?

SHE HAS TAKEN WINE OF CARDUI.

Wine of Cardui is a nerve tonic acting especially on the female organs. And that is what many, many thousands of weak and worn down women need. They need rest—rest from the distressing pain and suffering. Wine of Cardui gave that relief to Miss Hampton.

Don't let anybody tell you you can't be cured—that an operation is necessary.

Free yourself from the terrible nerve racking pains by taking Wine of Cardui.

We want you to feel as well as she feels NOW. Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist.
